Stampede Expands its Management Team As Part of Company's Aggressive New Growth Plan

BUFFALO, N.Y., Nov. 10, 2004 — Stampede Presentation Products has expanded its sales efforts with the addition of Rick Bramson, product marketing manager and David Bishop, sales manager of U.S. division. The newly created positions serve as part of the company's new aggressive growth plan.

“Adding talented and experienced members to our team is the first step in our new vision to expand Stampede and make it more prominent within the industry, said Mark Wilkins, president and CEO of Stampede. “We hope to further develop our sales and management teams in the near future.”

In his newly created position, Bramson will manage product assortment with an emphasis on growing the accessory business. By careful product selection, renewed sales training and external marketing activities, Bramson plans to drive accessory sales. Additionally, he will provide sales support, review inventory levels and actively recruit new vendor opportunities and categories. Bramson joins Stampede with more than 11 years of experience at PC Connection and Tweeter.

"I am privileged to have been presented with an opportunity to join a growing company, with aggressive growth plans, and superb personnel. I truly feel I am part of an organization with a solid plan for further success," says Bramson.

Bishop will serve as the new sales manager for the U.S. division. Bishop brings more than 10 years of industry experience in sales and management. As part of his new role with Stampede, Bishop will manage and oversee the company's PRO A/V and IT VAR groups. Bishop plans to focus on product and sales growth within each region, proactively recruit new customers within targeted regions, strategize for short term and long term customer relationship and work with Stampede's vendors to assist on strategic initiatives. Bishop comes to Stampede from Ingram Micro.

Known for its value-added distribution, Stampede is a leading distributor of presentation and home theater products including LCD projectors and thin plasma monitors. Stampede provides a complete range of brand name equipment to a variety of audio-video and computer resellers in the United States and Canada.
