Stampede Hires Former Electrograph Sales Rep, Expands Southern U.S. Presence

New Hire Based in Tampa, FL

DEPEW, NY, July 23, 2009 — Stampede, the leading value-added distributor of presentation and home theater technology, has hired Don Dekker, a former Electrograph Sales Rep who will expand Stampede's presence in the Southern U.S.

"Don is a great recruit for us," said Kevin Kelly, Stampede president and COO. "He's a great talent and has tremendous knowledge of the needs of dealers in Southeastern U.S. He will be a great asset to our team."

Don Dekker, based in Tampa, FL, will be a Senior Relationship Manager for Stampede. Dekker had been Southeast Territory Manager for Electrograph. Prior to that he was Product Sales Champion for Tech Data.

Stampede established a presence in the Southeast in 2005 when the firm opened a Miami office to serve the Latin American market.

About Stampede

Known for its value-added distribution, Stampede is the leading distributor of presentation equipment including LCD/DLP projectors and flat panel displays. Stampede provides a complete range of brand name presentation equipment to a variety of audio/visual, computer, and home theater resellers and integrators in the United States, Canada and Latin America. These resellers rely on Stampede for value-added services in distribution, marketing and solution-based sales. Stampede annually produces the "Big Book of AV," a 520-page catalog and companion website (www.BigBookofAV.com) providing hundreds of sales, installation and spec tips for Stampede's dealers in addition to product details on more than 5,000 SKUs.
